From the Pastor

A Change in Pastoral Work for Fr. Rich Rosin, SDB

We have been blessed over the past number of years with the priestly presence and witness of Fr. Rosin, a Salesian of Don Bosco. Fr. Rosin has been assisting here at St. John's with weekend Mass coverage along with other priestly assistance during his time on faculty and in leadership positions at St. Petersburg Catholic High School (SPCHS). Unfortunately, the Salesian community will be leaving the SPCHS community at the close of this school year. The high school administration will be returned to the diocese as new leadership will be brought on. This situation impacts us here at St. John's because it means Fr. Rosin will be reassigned by his community and will no longer be assisting here at the parish. Fr. Rosin will continue to offer his priestly assistance here until early June. We wish Fr. Rosin all the best during this time of transition and we are grateful for his years of dedicated service to our parish community and to the high school community of SPCHS.

Welcome Fr. Jose "Joy" Colina!

Bishop Gregory Parkes has appointed Fr. Jose "Joy" Colina as Parochial Vicar for our parish effective July 1, 2017. Fr. Colina is from the Philippines and was ordained in 1989. He is an incardinated priest of our diocese and has been serving in various parish assignments over the past 14 years. His pastoral ministry includes assignments at St. Paul—Tampa, Our Lady of Lourdes—Dunedin, St. Anthony—Brooksville, and most recently at Corpus Christi—Tampa.

We welcome Fr. Colina to St. John's and we look forward to his arrival in July.

Conditions for Obtaining a Plenary Indulgence

The last couple of weekends, we have been advertising a special rosary event to celebrate the Centennial Anniversary of the Apparitions of Fatima. On the 13th of each month from May through October, we will offer rosary services at our Fatima grotto with the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence as granted by our Holy Father, Pope Francis. See pages 6 & 7 for a good summary of what a plenary indulgence is and how one goes about obtaining it.

100th Anniversary Year of Our Lady of Fatima November 27, 2016–November 26, 2017

Here at St. John's, we are blessed to have a beautiful outdoor grotto of Our Lady of Fatima. I am pleased to announce that Bishop Parkes has granted permission for us to make use of our grotto as a public place for veneration for the centennial anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady in Fatima, with the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence as part of the second way: to visit with devotion a statue of Our Lady of Fatima exposed for public veneration as part of some celebration during the days of the apparitions, the 13th of each month from May to October 2017.

With all this in mind, on the 13th of each month, from May through October, there will be two public gatherings to pray the rosary: one will be during the day (times will be announced) and one will be after sunset (the sunset rosary will be a candlelight service). Please mark your calendars and plan to be a part of this special grace-filled centennial anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady in Fatima. Our first gathering at the Fatima grotto will be Saturday, May 13th at 10 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. Please note, the parking lot in front of the grotto will be roped off and not available to park your car. Please plan to use the other parking lots around the church for these events. Thank you.

NOVEMBER 27, 2016—NOVEMBER 27, 2017
100TH ANNIVERSARY YEAR OF
OUR LADY OF FATIMA

ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

Indulgence Opportunities
During the Centennial Anniversary of the Apparitions of Our Lady in Fatima, Portugal

Pope Francis has granted a plenary indulgence opportunity for the 100th anniversary of the Fatima apparitions throughout the centennial year, from the 27th of November 2016 till the 26th of November 2017. There are three ways to obtain the indulgence, detailed in a statement from the Fatima Shrine in Portugal (see below).

To obtain the plenary indulgence, the faithful must also fulfill the ordinary conditions: go to Confession and Communion, be interiorly detached from sin, and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Make a pilgrimage to the Shrine in Fatima, Portugal—To the faithful who make a pilgrimage to the Fatima Shrine in Portugal and participate in a celebration of prayer dedicated to the Virgin. In addition, the faithful must pray the Our Father, recite the Creed and invoke the Mother of God.

Pray before any statue of Our Lady of Fatima—To the faithful who visit with devotion a statue of Our Lady of Fatima solemnly exposed for public veneration in any church, oratory or proper place during the days of the anniversary of the apparitions, the 13th of each month from May to October 2017, and there devoutly participate in some celebration or prayer in honor of the Virgin Mary. In addition, the faithful must pray the Our Father, recite the Creed and invoke Our Lady of Fatima.

The elderly and infirm—To the faithful who, because of age, illness or other serious cause, are unable to get around, may pray in front of a statue of Our Lady of Fatima and must spiritually unite themselves to the jubilee celebrations on the days of the apparitions, the 13th of each month, between May and October 2017. They must also “offer to merciful God with confidence, through Mary, their prayers and sufferings or the sacrifices they make in their own lives.”¹

Learn More About the Church’s Practice of Granting Indulgences

What is an indulgence? An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven.² There are specific conditions for receiving an indulgence.

As a result of the communion that exists between Christ and all the members of the Church, the Church has a treasury of spiritual goods that is inexhaustible. The source of these spiritual goods is Christ. Through her union with Christ, the Church has the authority to dispense this treasury. When the Church does this, in order to spur people to acts of piety and charity, the Church requires those who seek an indulgence to perform some good work or act of devotion.

An indulgence does not confer grace. An indulgence is not a remission of the guilt due to sin. The guilt due to sin is ordinarily taken away by the Sacraments of Baptism and Penance (confession), in which we receive forgiveness for sins through Jesus Christ. Although guilt is taken away, and with it the eternal penalty that is due to sin, namely, damnation, the eternal loss of the presence of God, there remain consequences for sins that those who have committed them must bear. There is what is traditionally called the temporal punishment for sin.

Every sinful act creates a disorder within the soul of the human person; it distorts our desires and affections, leaving us with “an unhealthy attachment to creatures, which must be purified either here on earth, or after death in the state called Purgatory.” Furthermore, sin disrupts one’s relationships with God, with the Church, with other people, and with the world as a whole. The communion intended by God is damaged or lost. Those who have received forgiveness for their sins through the sacraments still have an obligation to undergo a difficult and painful process (the temporal penalty for sin) to be purified of the consequences of their sins and to restore the disrupted relationships. The necessary and painful process that brings restoration and purification can take place either in this life or in Purgatory, as whatever part of the process remains unfinished at death must be completed in Purgatory.

Through an indulgence, God grants the prayer of the Church that the temporal penalty for sin due to someone be reduced [partial indulgence], or possibly eliminated [plenary indulgence]. By God's grace, participation in a prayer or action that has an indulgence attached to it brings about the necessary restoration and reparation without the suffering that would normally accompany it. The granting of an indulgence by the Church is "the expression of the Church's full confidence of being heard by the Father when, in view of Christ's merits and, by his gift, those of Our Lady and the saints, she asks him to mitigate or cancel the painful aspect of punishment by fostering its medicinal aspect through other channels of grace."³

What is the difference between a partial and plenary indulgence? An indulgence is partial or plenary according to whether it removes either part [partial] or all [plenary] of the temporal punishment due to sin.⁴

² Manual of Indulgences N1

³ From USCCB website: <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/prayers/popular-devotional-practices-basic-questions-and-answers.cfm>

⁴ Manual of Indulgences N2

What are the conditions for obtaining an indulgence? In order to be capable of gaining indulgences one must be baptized, not excommunicated, and in the state of grace at least at the completion of the prescribed works. To gain an indulgence, one must have at least the general intention of doing so.⁵

Plenary Indulgence: Furthermore, for reception of a Plenary Indulgence, which grants the remission of all temporal punishment due to sin, in addition to this good work or act of devotion, the Church specifies four conditions: (1) sacramental confession, (2) reception of Holy Communion, (3) prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, and (4) complete detachment from all sin, even venial sin.⁶

Partial Indulgences: If the full disposition is lacking, or if the work and the four prescribed conditions are not fulfilled, [save certain specified exceptions], the indulgence will only be partial.⁷

Note on Partial Indulgences: In the past, partial indulgences were "counted" in days (e.g., 300 days) or years (e.g., 5 years). Catholics often mistakenly thought that this meant "time off of purgatory." Since there is no time in purgatory, as we understand it, it meant instead the remission of temporal punishment analogous to a certain amount of penitence as practiced in the early Church. This was a very generous standard, since the penitence required for sacramental absolution in the early centuries was arduous, indeed. However, with Pope Paul VI's 1968 revision of the Enchiridion Indulgentiarum (Collection or Handbook of Indulgences), this confusing way of counting partial indulgences was suppressed, and the evaluation of a partial indulgence left to God.⁸

Can a baptized person obtain an indulgence for someone else? The faithful can obtain Partial or Plenary indulgences for themselves, or they can apply them to the dead.⁹

Love Hurts: The Truth Behind Redemptive Suffering (CD)

Fr. Robert Barron offers five sermons on the spiritual discipline we must cultivate in the Lenten season, a discipline centered in Christ. These meditations cover topics such as finding our identity in God, prayer as the key to mission, our thirst for God, how to end our alienation from God, and how to joyfully embrace the way of happiness.

Various CD's, booklets and/or books are available in the main entrance of the church. We kindly ask for a $2 donation for each booklet, $3 donation for each CD and $5 for each book to continue this ministry. Please make checks payable to St. John Vianney. For more information, contact the parish office at 360.1147, ext. 233.

ARE YOU LED BY THE SPIRIT

Christ Renews His Parish

Please pray for all the women attending the Christ Renews His Parish retreat this weekend.

They will be attending the 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday as they begin the last day of their retreat. You will know them by the joy on their faces as they spend a weekend free of the worries of the world and find renewal in the peace of Christ. Each woman will in turn be praying for many of you and the prayer intentions of the weekend will remain on the altar next to the tabernacle all week.

The unconditional love of Jesus is poured out once again upon all who answer his invitation. Jesus we trust in you.

MEN'S MINISTRY

Newcomers and returning parishioners please join us.

THE FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The observance of the first Saturday in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary is intended to make reparation to it for the sins of mankind. This devotion was revealed by the Blessed Virgin to three children, Francisco, Jacinta and Lucia to whom she appeared at Fatima, Portugal, in 1917.

On June 13, 1917, Our Lady specifically stated in speaking to Lucia: Jesus wants to make use of you to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart.

Our Lady repeated this in the July 13th apparition when, after the vision of Hell that was granted to the three children, she said: You have seen Hell, where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world, devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace. Our Lady asks for reparation. There are so many souls whom the Justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I have come to ask reparation; reparation to this Heart for the sins of mankind, in particular the five kinds of offenses and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary, namely:

1. Blasphemies against the Immaculate Conception
2. Blasphemies against her perpetual virginity
3. Blasphemies against the divine and spiritual maternity of Mary
4. Blasphemies involving the rejection and dishonoring of her images
5. The neglect of implanting in the hearts of children a knowledge and love of this Immaculate Mother

O' my Jesus, I offer this love of Thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The following First Saturday devotions are efficacious in honoring the Immaculate Heart of Mary:

1. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass
2. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
3. Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary
4. Act of Reparation
5. The Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary
6. The Sacrament of Reconciliation

I promise to help at the hour of death, with the graces needed for salvation, whoever on the First Saturday of five consecutive months shall:

1. Confess and receive Holy Communion
2. Recite five decades of the Holy Rosary
3. Keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to me.

St. John Vianney Parish observes this devotion on the first Saturday of every month following the 8:15 a.m. Mass. All are welcome to participate.
