A Stewardship Parish

A FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Let us praise those fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives.

Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their stepchildren's love and respect.

Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

From the Pastor

Congratulations Joan Morgan!

After 35 years of dedicated and outstanding service to the Diocese of St. Petersburg, Mrs. Joan Morgan is retiring this month. Over the years, Joan has served in a number of diocesan positions. She has worked in the Diaconate Office, then became Executive Secretary to the Vicar General. In 2000, she was named Vice Chancellor, and since 2005 has been serving our diocese as Chancellor. Joan and her husband Richard, are active parishioners here at St. John's. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Joan and wish her all the best in her retirement!

Fortnight for Freedom: June 21–July 4.

In April 2012, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops announced the first Fortnight for Freedom — a call to 14 days of prayer, education and action for religious freedom in the United States and abroad. The theme for 2017 is Freedom for Mission. The Fortnight will again take place from June 21–July 4. This two-week period is a time when our liturgical calendar celebrates a series of great martyrs who remained faithful in the face of persecution by political power, including St. Thomas More, St. John Fisher, St. John the Baptist, SS. Peter and Paul and the First Martyrs of the Church of Rome.

We are called during this time to reflect on the importance of religious freedom so that the church might have the space to carry out her mission of service and mercy. It is also a time to pray for our brothers and sisters who face intense persecution in other parts of the world. Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore will open the Fortnight with a special Mass on Wednesday, June 21st at 7 p.m. at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Assumption of the BVM in Baltimore, MD. This special Mass will be aired on EWTN.

Here at St. John's, we will commemorate this special Fortnight by praying a Litany for Liberty at our daily Masses during June 21–July 4. We will also include special prayer intentions for religious freedom as part of our general intercessions at our weekend Masses. Our daily Mass on July 4th will also acknowledge the closing of the Fortnight for Freedom.

Feast of Corpus Christi – Sunday June 18th – Eucharistic Procession

It is traditional on the Feast of Corpus Christi to show our love for the Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, by having a Eucharistic Procession. We will have our annual Eucharistic Procession around the grounds of our parish and school property immediately after the 11:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, June 18th. After the Procession, we will return to the church for Solemn Benediction. Please plan to be a part of this special liturgy.

Fr. John J. Blum

FOR TRAVELERS AND VACATIONERS

God of all travelers:
Send us an angel to keep us safe
wherever we go.

Grant us summertime refreshment, as you once sent ravens to refresh your holy prophet Elijah.

Like Ruth and Naomi,
keep us devoted to one another.

Like Abraham and Sarah, may we be gracious to guests and hospitable to strangers.

Bless us on our journeys,
bless the people we meet,
and bless our returning home,
through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

ANNUAL PASTORAL APPEAL

If you recall, last weekend we shared the breakdown of where our APA dollars are spent. This weekend we will provide descriptions for the first two areas.

Social Services and Life Ministries—$1,566,113 (10.6% of all donations): Services and outreach to the poor, marginalized and vulnerable focused on protecting public safety, promoting the common good and restoring community with justice and charity. One of the largest reaching ministries supported through APA is Catholic Charities.

They provide shelter and housing, medical services to the uninsured, pregnancy and adoption services, help to immigrants and refugees and so much more.

Vocations and Seminarian Education, and Religious, Clergy and Seminarian Support—$3,049,112 (20.6% of all donations): This area of support may seem quite simple; the money goes to the seminarians. However, there is more to this. Some of the funds are used to help support and house retired priests and religious. Also, continuing education for our priests and deacons is vital to their service of our parishioners. Annual retreats are also a part of the services provided to our priests and deacons.

Next week you will hear more about the other two areas.

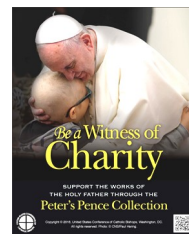

If you have already made your commitment to the Annual Pastoral Appeal, thank you. If you have not, please continue to pray about your involvement in helping our parish attain our goal.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

June 24/25, 2017

Next week, our second collection will be for Peter's Pence, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit, www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

ALTAR FLOWERS

We invite you to donate flower arrangements in memory of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday, an anniversary, a baptism, any other special occasion or a church feast.

Donations and the occasion will be published in the church bulletin and announced at Mass. Please contact the Parish Office at 360.1147.

This week's pedestal arrangements are donated by Tricia Boat-Sorbie.

In Memory of My Beloved Msgr. Trainor on His 73rd Anniversary of Ordination—06.18.1944.

TWO HOST FAMILIES NEEDED

Japanese Students

Two host families are needed to house Japanese students July 22–July 24 (2 days). Students are visiting the area for the weekend from a math and science institute in Japan and are all high school age. They arrive with their teachers and Vice Principal of the school. When they arrive in the U.S. they go to Harvard and MIT and sit in on classes and meet with professors and students. When they arrive here, they wish to have the experience of meeting American families for the weekend.

For more information on how to become a host family, please contact Ali O'Connor at 418.3942.

Building Your Life on Rock: Standing Firm in the Storm (CD)

Ralph Martin, an internationally known Catholic leader and teacher, discusses the challenges and the joys of being fully faithful to all the church proclaims as true. Ralph provides practical advice on how to build our lives on rock and equip ourselves spiritually so that we can reach out to others with true charity. He shows how our fidelity to the Word of God will give us the strength to stand victorious in the difficult age in which we live.

Various CD's, booklets and/or books are available in the main entrance of the church. We kindly ask for a $2 donation for each booklet, $3 donation for each CD and $5 for each book to continue this ministry. Please make checks payable to St. John Vianney. THE HEART OF JESUS

Christ Renews His Parish

The heart of Jesus is overflowing with compassion for all those who suffer; Those beset by troubles, difficulties, and hardships; For the hungry, those who toil, the destitute, and the sick and infirm.

He is the heart of a father, the heart of a mother, the heart of a shepherd.

—Leo John Dehon
 Founder: Priests of the Sacred Heart

LAY PASTORAL MINISTRY INSTITUTE

Is God Calling You to Serve as a Lay Ecclesial Minister in His Church?

...we, though many, are one body...
 (1 Cor 10:17) This is a Sunday in which we can pause and reflect with gratitude the sacrifice Jesus made for us. In the words of St. Thomas a Kempis, Lord, all things in Heaven and earth are Yours. I desire to give myself to You as a free offering, and to be Yours forever. O Lord, in simplicity of heart I offer myself to You this day, to be Your servant forever. I do this as an act of homage to You , and as an act of perpetual praise. (The Imitation of Christ)

Ask yourself: What does it mean for me right now to be bread for others as Jesus was? Effective lay ecclesial ministers need more than a heart for ministry; they also need personal and spiritual maturity, knowledge of theology and other disciplines and pastoral skills. Lay ministers need and deserve a formation program with high standards, effective methods and comprehensive goals. This is what we, here in the diocese, work hard to offer to you with the Lay Pastoral Ministry Institute.

Classes begin September 9, 2017. For anyone interested in attending the LPMI Year of Discernment monthly sessions, visit the LPMI website at <http://dosp.org/lpmi>.

You may also contact the LPMI office at the Pastoral Center at 727.344.1611, ext. 5458 or send an email to lpmisepi@dosp.org.
